TURISMO DE PORTUGAL

Heritage and Cultural Tourism Management

Technological Specialisation Courses Access with the 12th Grade

Lectured in PT

Career Opportunities

The Specialist Technician in Heritage and Cultural Tourism Management is the professional qualified to plan, coordinate, develop tourism programmes, promote, communicate and market cultural tourism and heritage products that contribute to the knowledge of the tourist destination, its attractiveness, enhancement and sustainability, in public and private entities, as well as in tourism and/or cultural services, equipment and sites.

Main Activities

- programmes
- of the market
- plan
- process

Design and plan cultural tourism and heritage

Programme, organise and promote cultural tourism and heritage programmes, activities, visits, routes and events, in accordance with the needs, interests and expectations

Cooperate with the different partners interested in the tourism and cultural development of the region or site Establish and implement a marketing and communication

Establish and implement distribution and sales strategies for tourism programmes and products

Monitor and assess the implementation of tourism programmes carried out in the various components of the ### Requirements

- High-school diploma (or legal equivalent in Portugal) or Vocational qualification level 4 diploma (European Qualifications Framework)
- Minimum B2 English level (Council of Europe standard), to be assessed through a written test

Further studies

Higher Education Centers

- With this training students are granted credit units (ECTS)
- recognized under the Bologna Process, enabling students to
- pursue further training in related areas at several Universities and
- Schools of Turismo de Portugal have established protocols with
- different national and international higher education institutions.

Structure

2 Semesters + 1 curricular internship + Induction Programme (150h).

The Heritage and Cultural Tourims Management Programme is a 1 year (full-time) course, consisting of two semesters, including a 3-month internship. Students have the opportunity to select top restaurants, hotel chains, and resorts in Portugal and abroad to do their training.

Induction Program

Induction Programme (150h) consists of a beginner-level training programme aimed at students with no previous training or experience in the area.

TUITION FEES

Course fee €1.000 Payment of €100x10 monthly instalments

 $\frown$

formacao@turismodeportugal.pt

CURRICULAR PLAN

INDUCTION PROGRAM

Hours

Key moments in the history of Portugal and its artistic production

40

|                                       | 1st Semester  |       |
|---------------------------------------|---|-------|
| Component                             | Competence Unit   | Hours |
| Genericand ScientificTraining | Communicate in Portuguese during tourist activities                             | 50    |
|                                       | Interact in English in providing information about tourism                      | 25    |
|                                       | Total   | 75    |
|                                       | Analyse and transmit information about artistic heritage in Portugal            | 50    |
|                                       | Plan and advertise cultural and heritage tourism programmes                     | 50    |
|                                       | Provide information about and advertise cultural heritage                       | 50    |
|                                       | Promote and advertise cultural and artistic expressions                         | 50    |
|                                       | Organise and manage information on tourism as an economic activity              | 25    |
| Technological                         | Apply ethical values and the rules of business protocol in the tourism industry | 25    |
| Training                              | Adopt quality management practices in tourism services                          | 50    |
|                                       | Implement sustainable practices in tourism activities                           | 25    |
|                                       | Interact in a foreign language in cultural tourism and heritage                 | 25    |
|                                       | Handle emergency situations in tourism programmes                               | 25    |
|                                       | Provide excellent service in luxury tourism                                     | 50    |
|                                       | Organise and manage information on tourism as an economic activity              | 25    |
|                                       | Total   | 425   |

1st Semester Total 500

2nd Semester

| Component                  | Competence Unit  | Hours |
|----------------------------|--|-------|
| Generic                    | Interact in English in providing information about tourism                   | 25    |
| and ScientificTraining | Create and develop business ideas  | 50    |
|                            | Total  | 75    |
|                            | Create and manage cultural and heritage tourism projects                     | 50    |
|                            | Design entertainment programmes and cultural tourism events                  | 25    |
|                            | Organise and promote heritage discovery projects                             | 50    |
|                            | Manage groups in tourist programmes  | 50    |
|                            | Manage tourism and digital marketing strategies                              | 50    |
| TechnologicalTraining  | Manage the online and offline communication of tourism products and services | 25    |
|                            | Implement new trends and innovation in tourism                               | 25    |
|                            | Implement legislation regulating the tourism industry                        | 25    |
|                            | Implement safety rules and risk management techniques in tourism programmes  | 50    |
|                            | Implement the requirements of accessible and inclusive tourism               | 25    |
|                            | Interact in a foreign language in cultural tourism and heritage              | 25    |
|                            | Applying storytelling in communication                                       | 25    |
|                            | Provide a quality service in health and wellness tourism                     | 25    |
|                            | Total  | 425   |
|                            | 2 nd Semester Total   | 500   |
| Company Training           | Curricular Internship  | 500   |

escolas.turismodeportugal.pt